

What AMT Magazine Readers
say about
Education, Training
and Industry Critical Issues

2016 Readership Survey

AMT, A&P, Repairman, Inspectors, etc.

Director, Manager, VP

Company Owner/Officer

Technical Support- Engineer, Quality,

Logistics

FAA Staff, Educators

Which Segment do you primarily support

General Aviation, Business Aviation, Airlines
Rotorcraft
Military
Government, Education, Independent

GA, BA, Airline respondents – 75%

What is your highest level of education

Technical School - 46%

BS/BA - 32%

Masters/MBA - 12%

High School - 7%

Doctorate - 2%

GED - 2%

How have you or your staff received training last year

Online/web-based

Internal company classroom training

Training by specialized/outside organization

Training provided by OEMs

How many training hours per year do you take

1-3 hours – 10%

4-6 hours – 6.5%

7-10 hours – 17.5%

11-20 hours – 23.5%

21-30 hours – 14%

31+ hours - 29%

What is your Biggest Concern

Availability and procurement of parts / materials

Availability of technical data

Recruiting / Retaining staff

Regulatory / Government Agencies

OEM Support

Training on the increasing complexity of aircraft and products

What is your Biggest Concern

#1 - Training on Increased Complexity of Aircraft

#2 - Recruitment/Retention of Staff

What is your age group

- 18-24 years of age – 1%
- 25-30 years of age – 1.5%
- 31-40 years of age – 5.5%
- 41-50 years of age – 15.3%
- 51-60 years of age – 37%
- 61+ years of age – 40%